🪪 PROFILE

I am a Junior Full Stack Web Developer based in London - UK. I am passionate about Technology, web development, and brands that work towards better digital interaction. I believe that through my work I can have a positive impact on people's lives.

I have been studying at Trybe, a web development school, since May/2021.

I love computer games, board games, middle-earth, and cyberpunk. I also like going to a pub and enjoying a pint along with a good conversation.
